

Proud to be FG2C!

Being a first gen student is a representation of how hard my family has worked to break out of the cycle of poverty. To me, it signifies that you aren't bound to the conditions you were born into.

First Generation Support Services

Did you know that over 30% of UCSF students are among the first in their families to attend college? If you're a first gen student, faculty or staff member, let First Generation Support Services connect you with your first gen peers, mentors, mentees or collaborators. Share your experience by using #FirstGenUCSF on social media!
